CHAIN LINK FENCE MANUFACTUERS ANNOUNCE 2007-2008 DESIGN AWARD APPLICATIONS OPEN

The Chain Link Fence Manufacturers Institute (CLFMI) has announced that it is now accepting applications for its 2007-2008 Les Grube Memorial Design Award contest. The Award, which includes a uniquely-designed plaque and a cash award of $1,000, is given to the designing architect and installing contractor on the project which makes the best and most unique use of chain link fence materials.

The 2006-2007 Award was won by Johnson Fain Partners, Los Angeles and Crown Fence, Santa Fe Springs, CA, for their design and installation of the Central High School Pedestrian Bridge (see inside). Previous winners of the award include Pritzker award-winner Frank Gehry, Venice, CA; Arai/Jackson Architects, Seattle, WA; and Don M. Hisaka and Associates, Cambridge, MA.

Architects and contractors are encouraged to submit applications as soon as possible to be considered for the 2007-2008 Award.
